

Bridging The Gap Foundation and SEDA College 2023 Indigenous Students Scholarship Program

SEDA College, in conjunction with the Bridging The Gap Foundation, has introduced the 2023 'Indigenous Students Scholarship Program' providing financial assistance to Indigenous and Torres Strait Islander students who are attending one of SEDA College's Sports Development Program classes in Geelong.

Scholarship Inclusions

The scholarship includes the following components:

- $2500 towards 2023 school fees and $500 towards other school related expenses
- Support for industry work placements
- Mentoring support from Bridging The Gap Foundation and SEDA College

Please note that the scholarship only applies to the 2023 Student Fees.

*Holders of a valid Concession Card are still required to provide a copy of this card to the College.

Important information

Please ensure that all sections of the application have been completed as incomplete applications will not be considered.

Section C, Applicant Profile, MUST be completed by the applicant/student NOT the Parent/Guardian. This is to ensure that applications can be assessed fairly.

Please email completed applications to scholarships@scv.vic.edu.au.
